

You can only export bookings as a csv file for all staff not individuals.

The export option is available from the Events Planner page

To limit the days that you want to look at then enter a start and end date

If you are not interested in timetabled classes then you can choose not to include them.

You can select as up to 5 different categories of bookings